SCHOOLYARD
PROJECT

Share Your Experience

Team International

“ I wanna change the way kids think about food. ”

Steph is a history teacher in a middle school in St. Paul, MN. Her passion is gardening and she also enjoys finding creative ways to reuse things in her home.

Goals:

- + Getting resources to start
- + Transferring knowledge
- + Inspiring advocates
- + Increase students' engagement
- + See immediate impact
- + Celebrating success with others

The Problem

“I would do more to share ideas and lessons if I knew others are using the material.”

The Solution

Help Steph contribute and show her how that contribution helps others
