

You're a seed that wants to grow.
Planted in the earth below.

With sun and warmth,
water and rain,

slowly you begin to change.

Your stem comes sprouting
from the ground...

Your leaves reach up.
Your roots dig down.

You rise up strong.
You rise up tall.
Giving food and life to all.

